Patent No. 143 The United States of America.

Northern Pacific R.R. Lands
 To all to whom these presents shall come Greeting;

Whereas by the Act of Congress approved July 2, 1854, entitled "An Act granting lands to aid in the construction of a Railroad and telegraph line from Lake Superior to Puget Sound on the Pacific Coast by the Northern Route" and the joint resolution of May 31, 1850, there was granted to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, its successors and assigns, for the purpose of aiding in the construction of said railroad and telegraph line and branch to the Pacific Coast, every alternate section of public land, not mineral, designated by odd numbers to the amount of twenty alternate sections per mile on each side of said railroad line as said Company may adopt through the Territory of the United States, and ten alternate sections of land per mile on each side of said railroad, whenever it passes through any State, and whenever on the line thereof, the United States have full title, not reserved, sold, granted, or otherwise appropriated, and free from pre-emption or other claims or rights at the time the line of said road is definitely fixed, and a plat thereof filed in the Office of the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

And Whereas, official statements from the Secretary of the Interior, have been filed in the General Land Office showing that the Commissioners appointed by the President under the provisions of the fourth section of the first named act, have reported to him that the said Northern Pacific Railroad and Telegraph Line and Branch, excepting that portion between Wallula, Washington and Portland, Oregon, declared forfeited by the Act of September 29, 1890, have been constructed and fully completed and equipped in the manner prescribed by the act relative thereto, and the same accepted by the President.

And Whereas, certain tracts have been listed under the acts aforesaid by the duly authorized agent of said Northern Pacific Railroad Company, as shown by his original lists approved by the local officers, and on file in this office.

And Whereas, the said tracts of land lie coterminous to the constructed line of road, and are particularly described as follows, to wit:
